Program Night

Our Featured Artist for October will be Elle Koleen. Ellie is a lifestyle, wedding, and brand photographer based in Fresno, California. An artist behind the lens shooting both medium format film and digital, her trademark airy, light-filled style makes her work easily recognizable. She uses her love for all things design related as inspiration for her work, and you can find her traveling any opportunity she gets to capture stories for her clients. Over the last four years, The Fresno Bee has named Ellie Best Photographer for the People's Choice Awards. You can find her at www.elliekoleen.com or @elliekoleen on Instagram.

October Monthly Meeting

Since the UC Merced Center is still closed, we will be having our meeting in Bedard Controls Training Room—1521 Tollhouse Road, Suite D, in Clovis. Tollhouse between Fowler and Sunnyside

Sent out an email showing where the office is located and where parking is available. Front of the office, on Tollhouse, on Stanford and behind the building. I am only mentioning this as we share the building with AA venue who also has a meeting at 7 pm and I do not know how busy the parking lot is in the evening.

This will be a print competition, please bring your three images by 6:45 pm. Forms on the website.

Coastal Trees

By Jim Sanderson

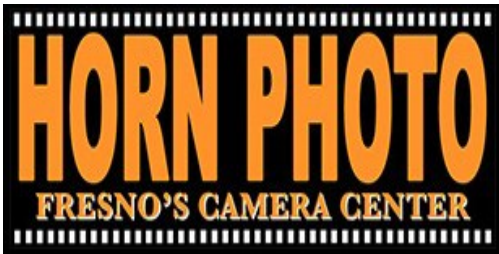

Armadillo By Midnight: Taken in March 2020 on a trip to Death Valley (mostly). A composite image with the background image taken just prior to sunrise at Eureka Dunes in the park. This was originally a day-light shot that I changed to a night shot. The sky (and reflection in the little puddle) came from the same trip during the dark of night. The trees in the background came from a trip to Namibia a few years ago. The glow of the moon in the sky and the moon's reflection came from a Photoshop filter plugin called BorisFX Optics. The armadillo is a stock photo. Lots of dodging and burning to give a surrealistic feel. GFX100, Canon TS-E 24mm with tilt and shift, ISO 100, 1/10s, f/16 on the background shot.

Cooper Hawk on Alert

By Patt Anderson

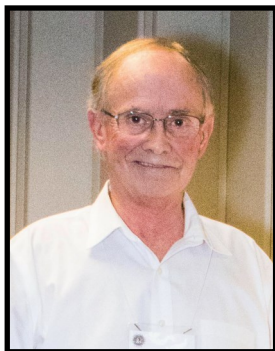

I was in our kitchen and looked out and saw what I thought was an owl in the back yard. Grabbed my Sony a6500, 350 mm lens and snapped a bunch of photos of this little guy. As it turned out, it was not an owl but a Cooper Hawk.

This was in January and the ginkgo tree was bare of foliage and the lighting just right. (Oh yes, I snapped this through a large window in our dining nook.)

Camera settings were: f7.1, 1/800s and ISO500, processed in Lightroom.

Yosemite Fall

By Dee Humphrey

I took this shot several years ago in the fall at Yosemite. I used a Canon Mark 5, iso 100, f10. I don't think I will ever get tired of shooting in Yosemite.

Ronald Webb, Sr.

December 10, 1951 - August 4, 2021

Ronald Dean Webb, Sr. passed away at home surrounded by his loving family on August 4, 2021. Ron was born in Ventura, CA and graduated from Cal Poly, SLO. Ron developed his love for photography while teaching in the Marshall Islands. Following two years teaching science in Hawthorne, NV, Ron taught photography at Clovis High School from August 1980 until his retirement in 2013. He continued to photograph for Clovis Unified School District until earlier this year when he was diagnosed with pancreatic cancer.

Ron was a born teacher and his greatest love was sharing his passion for photography with his students, CUSD, the community, and anyone he met. Everyone was a friend and he always had a camera in his hand and a smile on his face. Ron will be remembered as a man whose faith in God directly impacted how he chose to live his life. He loved his family, students, colleagues, and community. He touched lives wherever he went and his influence will long be felt by those who knew and loved him.

A celebration of Ron's life will be held on August 21, 2021, at 9:30 a.m. in the Clovis High School Amphitheater, 1055 Fowler Avenue, Clovis, CA. Cougar spirit wear or Clovis High colors are encouraged, "One a Cougar, Always a Cougar."

A visual arts scholarship has been established in Ron's name. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the Clovis High Cougar Foundation, 1055 Fowler Avenue, Clovis, 93611, with a memo noting the Ronald Webb Memorial Scholarship.
